

CENDRFELLA

BY: JACOB LATINI

Once upon a time in big bear city there was a boy named cendrfella.

He and his family
were staying at a
friends house named Lincoln.

It was snowing
pretty hard so he
diced to stay in
for the day.

Cendrfella a boy
who is really nice,
does lots of work,
and really likes snowboarding. He also had one of the top
snowboarding
dads in the world.
He wants to try
and win a trophy
for snowboarding
but he doesn't have a board or gear. His dream
is to become the best snowboarder.

But the problem is that there's another kid named Kai that's trying to win the snowboarding competition he's mean and he acts like he's the boss.

Kai also one of the best snowboarders for kids.

The other problem is that they don't have chains on their car so they might slide out when they're driving. They want to go so fast they could try and win the snowboarding competition but they're really still really scared that they might get stuck because they don't have chains on their car.

Cendrifella's
godmother is a
magic owl and
when ever the owl
goes "ow ow" magic will happen. The Owls name is Kate.

So Kate the magic owl went "ow ow" changed a bear into a red flaming hot Lamborghini. Then Kate went "ow ow" and changed four howling coyotes into chains for the car so they don't slide out. Then Kate went "ow ow" and changed cendrifella's skateboard into a brand new snowboard. Next Kate went "ow ow" and changed cendrifella's skateboarding helmet into a snow boarding helmet. Last Kate went "ow ow" and changed cendrifella's regular clothes into snowboarding clothes.

Now if you win the trophy Kate said, "Cendrifella you have to get out of there very fast are you will be back in your normal clothes".

The person who gave him the trophy took it to see if he would come back for it. Cendrifella's told is dad that he left his trophy behind so after they get back to Lincoln's house his dad went back for the trophy.

"Cendrifella you won the trophy I now but now you got to get out of there." Every body was asking him questions so he put his trophy down and lost it because there was so many people and had to leave it behind.

Cendrifella sees Kai outside and Kai says, "I'm really sorry that I was mean to you and acted like I was the boss. I want to be friends." sure I really would like that.

Before his dad dies because of age he gives Cendrifella the trophy and says "I love, you." After that Cendrifella becomes the best snowboarder and also gets married to a top class woman.
